THIS YEAR

We are going to have an amazing year together. In second grade, we are going to be reading some of the best books ever written, solving all kinds of math problems, writing and illustrating like real authors, and along the way we will be dancing, singing, laughing, and having a great time learning together.

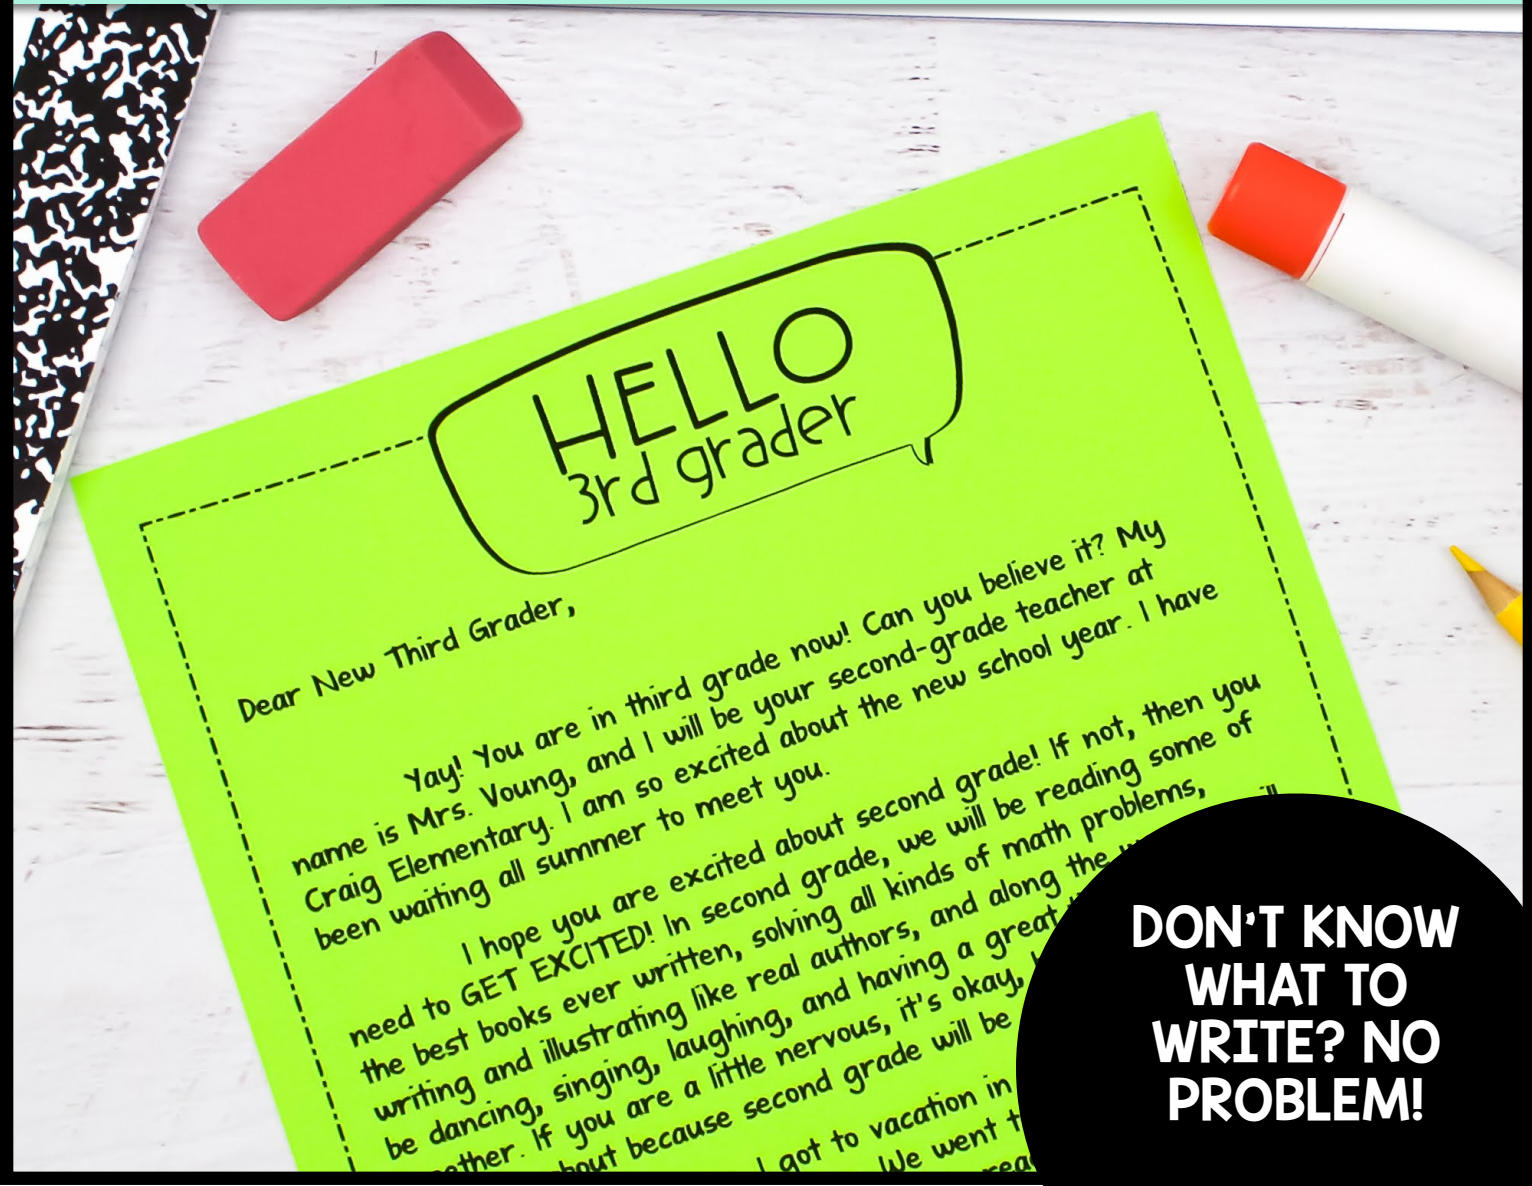

ONE MORE THING

On the first day of school, line up on the black top on number 12. I will meet you there and take us into the classroom and we will talk about what second grade is all about. We will get to do some reading, math and writing. I will read to you one of my favorite books and I will also have a snack for us to share.

See you Soon! Mrs. Hall
